

Supporting the next generation of Aboriginal leaders

Leadership and Governance

The Northern Territory Government recognises that building and supporting strong Aboriginal leadership, governance and capacity building is fundamental to Aboriginal Territorians driving local solutions and leading the way in local decision making.

About the First Circles Program

The First Circles Leadership program is a unique program that brings new voices, and quiet voices, to the conversation to ensure Aboriginal people from remote areas are engaged and can confidently and directly speak to, negotiate and influence government about matters affecting their lives, their families and communities.

The Program provides an opportunity for participants to directly engage at the highest level of government. They meet with Cabinet to discuss matters impacting Aboriginal Territorians, their communities, and present local solutions.

First Circles is about identifying, mentoring and supporting the next generation of Aboriginal leaders with a strong focus on remote leadership.

The term 'First Circles' combines two concepts:

- Acknowledgement of 'First Peoples'
- The use of 'Circles' represents the collaboration between people and communities being the main driver to improve outcomes.

The First Circles Leadership Program helps participants develop and expand their leadership skills, develop their professional profiles and better understand the impact of public policies and programs on their communities, and help influence and contribute to change, while having direct engagement with Members of the Legislative Assembly, Ministers and Cabinet.

First Circles is an annual leadership program offered to 16 Aboriginal participants, eight from the southern and eight from the northern regions of the Territory.

An expressions of interest process is undertaken for members to nominate to be part of the program each year.
