Aboriginal Affairs Strategy

Length: 30 second

Location: Galiwinku

	AUDIO Radio
	The Northern Territory Government is serious about giving Aboriginal Territorians more chances to get a job, start a business and get involved in the economy.
	This is creating job opportunities throughout the Territory, including the bush and changing lives.
	The Government wants to double the number of Aboriginal people working for the Government by 2020 and we are well on our way.
	“This is your business – get involved!” Talk to the Office of Aboriginal Affairs.
